GRACE TAGGART FLEES WITH BOYS

Monday Mrs. Taggart Was to Appear at Wooster, Ohio, in Connection with Divorce—She Took Passage on the Cedric.

Cincinnati, January 15.—The Times Star today publishes a story to the effect that Mrs. Grace Taggart, who was to have appeared in the Wooster court today in connection with her recent divorce from Captain E. F. Taggart, U. S. A., is on board the steamship Cedric with her two sons en route to Europe. She is said to have booked as Mrs. Grace Thompson and was accompanied by a trained nurse.

The arrangements for her sailing are said to have been made by her friends without her knowledge, and that she was afterwards persuaded to make the trip abroad in order to be out of Captain Taggart's reach until after his departure for the Philippines. The party is en route to Paris, where friends have arranged for a visit of uncertain length.

MELDRIM DEMURS ON MANY GROUNDS

Greene and Gaynor's Counsel Fighting the Indictments.

Question of Court as to Whether Embezzlement Was Felony or Misdemeanor Brings Reply That Courts Haven't Settled the Matter.

Savannah, Ga., January 15.—Demurres to the two indictments returned against Greene and Gaynor last November were argued on the opening of the federal court today, Colonel P. W. Meldrim making the argument for the defendants against reading the indictments to the court. Those indictments are Nos. 476 and 477 on the docket. The counts of No. 476 allege embezzlement in collusion and connection with former Captain Oborlin M. Carter and others, on July 6, 1897, of the sum of $354,000 and $230,740. No. 477 is the indictment charging the receiving of money the defendants knew Carter to have embezzled.

Colonel Meldrim demurred on many grounds, among them that the indictments failed to set out that the defendants were officers of any bank and authorized to receive public money; that they failed to set out when, where and how the money was fraudulently received and fraudulently paid out; that they failed in statements of facts, but alleged conclusions.

Says Prisoners Not Implicated.
Colonel Meldrim declared that the checks for the two amounts did not show in any wise the implication of Greene and Gaynor. On the contrary, they were drawn by Captain Carter to the order of the Atlantic Contracting Company and that in no way did the defendants appear as indorsers or collectors of the money, the indictments fail to set out and prove, he also declared, that the defendants bore any connection with the Atlantic Contracting Company, which moreover bore no relation of a fiduciary nature toward the United States, the government bestowing no trust or confidence in it, but exercising the closest surveillance over it.

Prior indictments of the defendants he admitted, alleged their connection with the Atlantic Contracting Company as its stockholders, but the last two failed absolutely in this respect.

Special Assistant Attorney General Erwin responded for the government, asserting that it would have been a physical impossibility to have entered into an exposition in detail in showing wherein the work done by the defendants differed from the specifications and that the indictments as drawn were good and sufficient.

He contended that the defendants aided and abetted in the embezzlement and were parties and accessories thereto and equally guilty. The court asked counsel whether he nominated embezzlement as a felony or a misdemeanor.

Two Sections To Be Considered.
The district attorney replied that there were two sections of the revised statutes which had to be jointly considered in the determination of that question. He then read the statute concerning embezzlement by an officer of the government, the punishment for which is imprisonment for one to ten years and a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both. The court interrupted to repeat this question to counsel.

"That is a question with which the courts have been wrestling for twenty years," replied Mr. Erwin.

Mr. Erwin said that the question had come up mainly on the matter of strikes allowed in choosing a jury. In the later decisions of the supreme court it has been decided that unless there is something in the statute itself to constitute a common law felony, "this particular statute itself does not set forth whether embezzlement is a misdemeanor or a felony."

The inference drawn from his argument was that if the charges were a felony, it could be punished under the statute, and if a misdemeanor under another. On Mr. Erwin's conclusion adjournment was taken.

Your Heart

Is a wonderful pump that works incessantly, averaging seventy to eighty strokes a minute and forcing from 20 to 30 pounds of blood through the body each minute. The power that keeps the heart going is motion is nerve-force, the energy furnished by the nerves.

Disease, over-exertion, fright, anxiety, alcohol, tobacco and other stimulants weaken these nerves, but the heart, instead of stopping, makes extraordinary efforts and causes heart strain.

Then comes shortness of breath, heart palpitation, dizziness, etc., because the nerves are too weak to furnish power. Take the only safe remedy.

COTTON MARKET TO BE WIDENED

Clay Presents the Georgia

Memorial To Congress.

Senator Also Introduced Amendment To Agricultural Appropriation Providing for Commission To Consider Extension of Markets.

By Jos. Ohi.

Washington, January 15.—(Special.) Senator Clay today presented as a memorial to congress the resolutions adopted by the general assembly of Georgia advocating the appointment of a commission to make investigation of the possibility of the cotton goods market in the Orient and in South America.

Clay also introduced the following resolution as an amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill:

"Whereas, it is of the highest importance that new and wider markets should be found for American cotton goods; and

"Whereas, authentic reports show an encouraging increase in the value of cotton goods in the Orient generally; and

"Whereas, there is immense territory both in the Far East and in Central and South America, whose people are unacquainted with value of cotton goods and American manufactures; therefore, be it enacted, That the president of the United States, with the advice and consent of the senate, is authorized and directed to appoint a commission, to be composed of not less than three and more than five persons, who shall be charged with the duty of visiting the above named countries, with a view of studying the conditions of the markets and with a view to opening new avenues to the trade in American cotton goods. It shall be the duty of said commission to devote itself to the important work and mission of securing broader and more extensive markets for American cotton goods, and the sum of $250,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the purpose of working out the provisions of this section."

The resolution was referred to the committee on agriculture.

PLAN BIG IMPROVEMENTS.

Georgia Railway and Electric Company To Spend $250,000 This Year.

Extensive improvements of many kinds will be made by the Georgia Railway and Electric Company during the year 1906, about $250,000 being the estimated cost of what will be done.

Among the conspicuous features of the improvement works is the erection of a new building for the use of motormen and conductors. This building will be located at the corner of Piedmont avenue and Armstrong (formerly Jenkins) street. Plans have already been drawn. The building will be three stories high. The first and second floors will be used for office purposes, and the third, or top floor, will be fitted up as a gymnasium, with all modern apparatus as well as fine bath rooms. This room can also be used as a lecture hall.

Besides this new building the double tracking of all its lines in Fulton county, wherever that is possible, will be another big improvement undertaken during the year. Heavy rails will likewise be laid in place of the light or worn ones now in use.

BACON SECURES OPEN DISCUSSION

Introduces Resolution Against Interference.

Contended That Participation in the Algeciras Conference Was Liable To Involve United States in Entanglements.

Washington, January 15.—Mr. Bacon today succeeded in securing an open discussion of the Moroccan question by the senate. This result was accomplished by the introduction of a resolution making a general declaration against interference on the part of the government of the United States in any country in European nations concerning the internal affairs.

Mr. Bacon's resolution is as follows: "Resolved, by the senate, That interference with or participation in any controversy between European governments relating to European international question is a violation of the well settled, well defined policy of this government, which has been recognized and observed for more than a century past."

Mr. Bacon contended that participation in the Algeciras conference is liable to involve the United States in the entanglements of European countries. He then dwelt upon the magnitude of the controversy over Morocco. The point at issue is, he said, whether France shall exercise exclusive control in Morocco or Germany shall share in that control.

"The question may be settled so as to bring peace," he said, "and it may be determined so as to result in war. He asserted that all the European governments regard war as the possible result, but even if peace was to be the result it would be quite as injurious as war would be, because of the precedent it would establish."

Committed to Doctrine.

Mr. Bacon said that the country is as much committed to the doctrine that entangling foreign alliances must be avoided as though it were a part of the written constitution.

"Who has departed from that doctrine?" asked Mr. Lodge, and Mr. Bacon replied that the policy against which he was inveighing would be a departure.

"Then," asked Mr. Lodge, "are the senator's remarks to be interpreted as a warning?"

Mr. Bacon admitted that such was the case, whereupon the Massachusetts senator expressed gratification, saying that he had not hitherto been able to decide as to the Georgia senator's purpose. To these remarks Mr. Bacon replied that he considered himself peculiarly unfortunate in not expressing himself so as to be comprehended by the great intellect of the Massachusetts senator. "In a case," he said, "the fault must all be with the speaker."

"I knew," replied Mr. Lodge, "that the senator had some great object in view, and I am much pleased to learn that it is to protect the country from a violation of Washington's farewell address."

"It is more than that," said Mr. Bacon. "We want to save the country from a violation of the policy laid down in the farewell address."

Mr. Hale said that he did not regret the discussion. "I think that in all matters submitted to the senate, involving treaties or even the negotiation of treaties, it was never intended to shut the senate out of participation."

"I don't believe," he said, "that in the present case the secretary of state will allow the country to be involved."

He believed the secretary of the state and president had determined not to send delegates to this conference. It is not called in the interest of commerce. It is a simon pure and outright political affair and has to do with matters in which we have no concern. The danger is not from the president or from the secretary, but from the war spirit in this country."

Little To Do with Morocco.

After enlarging upon this point, he said that the United States has little to do with Morocco and that we could negotiate a new treaty if desired in sixty days.

Mr. Bacon expressed the opinion that nine out of ten who had heard the debate agreed with the views of Mr. Hale, and he asked what would happen if a question involving serious political questions should arise and the American delegates should have the vote.

"In such event," replied Mr. Hale, "I believe Secretary Root, backed by the president, would telegraph the delegates to withdraw from the conference."

Mr. Bacon responded that while all might be safe under the present administration, the important point is that a precedent is involved. The danger might come when bad men would be in places of responsibility, as it had in one instance, when a man who was afterwards tried for treason had cast a deciding vote, and the danger would arise at such a time.

Concluding, Mr. Bacon said he had meant no reflection on the president or the secretary of state, both of whom he highly respected. He spoke feelingly of the fact that the president's maternal ancestry were Georgians, and said he had performed a great service to humanity in bringing about peace between Russia and Japan. He added that the president, not being a lawyer, might easily become involved in some matters requiring legal discrimination as had evidently been the case in the matter of a treaty which had never been submitted to the senate, but which, nevertheless, is in full force and effect.

Mr. Bacon's resolution was then, at his request, referred to the committee on foreign relations, and the merchant marine bill was laid before the senate. Mr. Golliver offered a number of amendments to the bill, which were adopted. The senate adjourned until tomorrow.

FIRE AGENTS SADDENED BY MAJ. WHITNER'S DEATH

A MEETING of the Atlanta local board of fire insurance agents was held yesterday afternoon in the executive committee room of the Southern Fire Association, at which A. J. Waldo presided, to take suitable action regarding the death of Major John C. Whitner, the dean of Atlanta fire insurance men, whose death occurred early yesterday morning. All the local fire insurance offices in the city were represented, and A. J. Waldo, W. F. Manry, William Lowe, President Fred W. Cole, of the local association, and others paid touching tributes to his memory. Resolutions were passed providing for a beautiful floral offering, which was sent—accompanied by the following note:

"The local fire insurance agents of Atlanta extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family of Major John C. Whitner, in their great sorrow."

"We send this tribute in token of our regard for his many years of usefulness and honorable pursuit in his profession."

"We honor his memory as a father in our business, as a friend of warm heart and active sympathies, as a man of high ideals and pure purposes, and as a gentleman of eminent Christian character."

A meeting was held directly following that of the local agents by the managers and field men of all the fire insurance companies represented in Atlanta, at which were present S. Y. Tupper, Thomas Eggleston, William E. Chapin, D. B. Harris, F. M. McKell, W. B. Prescott, W. L. Reynolds, W. D. Deane, Major J. S. Raine, Major Livingston Mims, John C. Ruse, W. P. Battison, Major Thomas Peters, Secretary C. C. Fleming, of the Southeastern Fire Association; John W. Pearce, and others. A committee composed of Managers Tupper, Peters and Eggleston was appointed to draw up memorial resolutions to be presented to the bereaved family.

Major Thomas Peters, Mr. Tupper and Mr. Eggleston spoke of Major Whitner's genial character and disposition, and his unflinching courtesy and helpfulness to younger members of the profession, and characterized that as one of his always distinguishing traits. Mr. Prescott also added words of eulogy.

MAJOR WHITNER BURIED TODAY

Funeral Will Be Conducted at Central Presbyterian Church.

The funeral services of Major John C. Whitner, the distinguished citizen of Atlanta, who died early yesterday morning at his residence, 121 South Pryor street, will be conducted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Central Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was one of the ruling elders. Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Rice, pastor of the church, will officiate. He will be assisted by Rev. A. R. Holderby, pastor of Moore Memorial Presbyterian church, and by Dr. F. H. Gaines, president of Agnes Scott Institute.

Because of the prominence and wide popularity of Major Whitner, the funeral services will be doubtless largely attended, it being probable that the entire church auditorium will be filled with people. Major Whitner was well-known by hundreds of people, and everyone who knew him loved and respected him.

The pallbearers will be Major Whitner's grandsons—Henry F. Whitner, John A. Whitner, Jr., Whitner Howard, Charles W. Whitner, John C. Whitner and Casper A. Whitner. The body will rest beneath the sod of Westview.

The elders and board of deacons of the Central Presbyterian church will act as escort.

Thin Major John C. Whitner there were few better known men in Georgia. For forty years he had been in the insurance business in Atlanta, and was the dean of the Atlanta insurance world. He was most successful in business, and when he died Monday in the 76th year of his age he left a substantial fortune as the fruit of his life's labors.

Surviving Major Whitner are his wife, his daughter and five sons, Henry F. Whitner, Casper A. Whitner, Thomas Whitner, John A. Whitner and Charles F. Whitner. In addition to these are his six grandsons, who will act as pallbearers at the funeral today.

HARVARD CUTS FOOTBALL OUT

Board of Overseers' Stops the Game Tentatively.

Boston, January 15.—Football has been abolished at Harvard, pending a reform in the game that will be acceptable to the board of overseers, according to an official announcement today from the university. The discontinuance of the game as a result of a vote taken last week at a secret meeting of the board of overseers, when it was decided that inter-collegiate football at Harvard would not be permitted until the rules and regulations had been so changed and amended as to remove what the overseers regarded as the evils of the present game. The overseers accepted unanimously the opinion of a special committee that the game as at present played is essentially bad in every respect, that the method of formation encouraged so-called trickery and foul play and that the result is bad for the morale of the players, as well as for the body.

The committee declared that changes were to be made no man now a member of the inter-collegiate rules committee should have a hand in it. The committee believing that these persons are so far committed to the present system that they could not agree to such changes as are absolutely necessary to produce a decent, clean, pleasurable contest, "instead of the present apology for a rough and tumble fight."

"Football is a fine game when properly played," the committee says, "but the present game is thoroughly bad and ought to be stopped absolutely and finally. Under the ruling of the overseers, football is now in abeyance at the university until the committee on the regulation of athletic sports has made its report to the board and until the board has accepted the new rules and regulations. The abolition of the game altogether caused great surprise among students and graduates."

South Carolina, Dec. 15.—The board of trustees of the South Carolina college, at its meeting here Saturday, decided to abolish inter-collegiate football. It was stated that the action was taken without any outside influence, being deemed for the best interests of the institution.

Paris, January 15.—In a 500-point billiard match tonight for the championship of the world between Maurice Vignaux, of Paris, and Willie Hoppe, of New York, the latter won by 177 points.

JOSEPH M'GHEE IS DEAD.

Former Sheriff of Meriwether County Passes Away at Private Sanitarium.

Joseph McGhee, aged 37, died last night at a private sanitarium after a brief illness. The body was removed to Harry G. Poole & Co.'s undertaking establishment, and is being awaiting instructions from O. W. McGhee, of Greenville, Ga., the father of the man.

He was for a number of years sheriff of Meriwether county, but resigned last spring and left Greenville. He had been in Atlanta for some months before his death.

Mr. McGhee was from one of the best known families of his section of the state.

PRINCE WANTS COLISEUM.

Notable Rainmaker Wants to Pull Off Cycle Races Here.

Jack Prince, the rainmaker, landed in Atlanta yesterday, and yesterday afternoon appeared before council and asked for a lease on the old Coliseum building, in which Jack proposes to pull off a number of bicycle races.

The petition for the lease was introduced by Councilman Oldknow. Rules of council were dispensed with, and Jack was permitted to make a speech, in which racing and rain were eloquently discussed. The petition was referred to the park committee for action.

He says he intends to schedule a number of races in Atlanta between Bobby Walthour and other riders, including Jimmie Moran, Hugh McLean, Bennie Munroe and several European riders.

RAVIANA, 50 TO 1, HOME IN FRONT

Rank Outsiders Were Successful at Fair Grounds.

Guiding Star Was the Only Favorite To Reward the Talent—Helen Lucas Beaten by Poor Start and Phil Finch by Miserable Ride.

New Orleans, January 15.—The improvement in the condition of the track at the fair grounds today favored the outsiders, and Guiding Star was the only successful favorite. Helen Lucas, in the 2-year-old scramble, was beaten by a poor start and repeated interference, and Phil Finch succumbed to a miserable ride.

Simplificity shared the same fate, and Letty, in whose race the 3 to 1 shot Raviana won pulled up, proved herself overrated.

The weather was cloudy and the track good.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs: Fancy Dress, 6 to 1, won; Phoebe, 12 to 1, second; Mart Gentry, 12 to 1, third. Time 1:17 4-5.

SECOND RACE—Five furlongs: Guiding Star, 7 to 5, won; High Chance, 6 to 1, second; Bitter Hand, 25 to 1, third. Time 1:07 2-5.

THIRD RACE—Three furlongs: Runsum, 10 to 1, won; Calusa, 12 to 1, second; Little Wanda, 8 to 1, third. Time 36 1-5.

FOURTH RACE—Mile: Lieber 5 to 2, won; Hollowmas, 5 to 1, second; Phil Finch, 4 to 5, third. Time 1:43 2-5.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs: Red Brake, 7 to 1, won; Frank Green, 15 to 1, second; Go to Win, 7 to 1, third. Time 1:18.

SIXTH RACE—Mile: Raviana, 40 to 1, won; Nutcracker, 12 to 1, second; Letty, 20 to 1, third. Time 1:48 1-4.

BILLY SENT OUT CONTRACTS.

Atlanta Manager Passed Busy Day in Answering Letters and in Sending Out Queries.

With the exception of three men, every Atlanta player has received a contract, or will receive one within the next few days.

Yesterday morning Manager Smith mailed contracts for the season to Thaddeus Tybald, Right Fielder, Murdoch, Pitcher, Zellers and Catcher Dunlap. Contracts have not been tendered to Rob Stafford, Bernie McCay, or Joe Rickert, as no disposition has been made of them.

Baseball laws specify, however, that a contract must be offered a man before March 1, the penalty being his release. Yesterday morning Manager Smith mailed a letter to Dale Gask asking him for his terms. If they are considered reasonable, the former Little Rock chieftain may be seen in Atlanta's outfield.

As announced in yesterday's Constitution, Doc Childs is now anxious to come, but Billy Smith is now holding off. He offered the pitcher splendid terms some time ago, and his offer was refused. Now Childs will have to come at some terms, with advance money cut out, as advance money is barred by a rigid baseball law. Billy says he has enough pitchers as it is.

WHAT DO DEMOCRATS THINK OF IT!

Georgia and Georgia democracy have fallen upon amazing times.
The man who, for fifteen years, has exhausted the vocabulary of opprobrium and applied its contents to the rank and file of democracy; who has smashed with a knotted bludgeon every democratic head that showed above the mass, heedless of its owner or his service to the state; to whom the word "democracy" has ever meant a fresher and more virulent attack of verbal hydrophobia; who has denounced every Georgian that followed the doctrines of his heart, the dictates of his mind and the inheritance of his fathers by voting a democratic ticket, as arrayed with a "corrupt, prostituted, damnable, VAGABOND" political party; whose waking and sleeping dream has been the absolute ruin of democracy; who has sought the fulfillment of that dream with every talent at the call of his cunning brain—this man comes to the front in a new role!

This man, Thomas E. Watson, burning openly and unabashed the warning red lights of the political wrecker, avowed and jubilant party hater, with an impudence that challenges admiration, has thrown himself body and soul into a democratic campaign where he is framing the policy of one of the candidates, defending and pushing the cause of that candidate with all the zeal at his command, intoxicated with the thought that he may be nearing the summit of his patient ambition—the disintegration of the democratic party.

Every development, down to Watson's last angry adjective, is a confirmation of the charge that he is in a deal to defeat and overthrow the democratic party. His philippics are the only answer he can offer. They are positively necessitated by that bright light which broke into the dark room at Columbus.

He exacts the lime light, too, as one of the prices. He is overshadowing Hoke hopelessly. "Place the responsibility squarely on me," he says in pronouncing that he had informed Mr. Smith of developments that he thought would be of interest to his candidacy.

But how do the democrats of Georgia relish the spectacle? Under the flag of democracy their fathers rescued Georgia from the embers of reconstruction; under the flag of democracy industrial, commercial and political battles have been fought and won which make Georgia the "Empire State of the South;" victories, traditions, achievements, growth, the prosperity apparent to this day, bear the impress of that sacred name and faith.

And this fierce, relentless, destructive critic of everything democratic, of everybody democratic, dominates the campaign of a democrat whose avowed office has brought the party to the pass where this defiant enemy of the party assumes to be its dictator!

The Poor Filipino.

The poor Filipino seems destined to another highly unpleasant experience with the Dingley tariff wall. His prayer for some sort of chance at the American market with his sugar and his tobacco has sent the sugar and tobacco lobbies scurrying to Washington to raise aloft the protection banner, demanding that all protected interests rally beneath it. The cry is raised that if the tariff is touched over so slightly for the Filipinos, or for anybody else, general tariff revision will follow as a certainty.

This is the same old cry that has met every effort at justice to the Philippines. Will it prove as potent as it has in the past? The present indications point that way.

Secretary Taft may throw every ounce of his splendid weight into the scale in behalf of his Oriental proteges, but even this will avail nothing with the whole protection system of America in the other side of the balance. And if the sugar and tobacco lobbyists know whereof they speak, this is the situation to be met by the Filipinos and their friends.

Every dictate of justice demands that we give to our islands of the South Pacific a free and open market for their products. Without this there is absolutely no chance for their development. The transfer of authority from Spain took away from them their chief market, while in return they have been given nothing by their new owners. Free entry into the markets of the United States should be theirs by right, and yet, solely because of the power of the protection fetish, not only is this denied them, but there is also denied the reduction to 25 per cent of the Dingley rates, for which they are asking, on the theory that a little something is better than nothing.

Not merely justice, but good business, would seem to dictate this reduction in favor of Philippines sugar and tobacco. The peace now existing in the islands is due, in some degree at least, to the promise that by being given access to the American markets their industries will be revived and material prosperity will come to them. In no other way can we hope to put contentment into their hearts, for they are human. Discontent will mean the undoing of much that has been accomplished in the islands under American occupation. Indeed, the fate of civil government there is in large measure involved in the success of this demand for tariff reductions upon their products.

The failure of last year may have been palliated by the promises made by Secretary Taft upon his recent visit, but this sort of thing cannot go on forever. It is the substance, not the promise, they seek; and it is the substance to which they are fairly entitled. Congress has no higher duty than to give it them. The selfishness of the pampered sugar and tobacco interests of the United States "mainland" should not be permitted to thwart the ends of justice and of what might be termed the national business.

Major John C. Whitner.

The death of Major John C. Whitner, at the age of 75 years, ends a career remarkable in many respects. In his home life, as a citizen, in his service to the "lost cause," as a writer of brilliance, as a devoted churchman and in his achievements in his chosen profession, his life offers a splendid example to his children and to the people of this city.

Major Whitner was probably the oldest fire insurance man in Atlanta. He engaged in this business prior to the civil war. He then offered his services to the Confederacy and served with bravery and distinction, winning the rank of major on the staff of General Howard Cobb. On leaving the army, he engaged in journalism in this city, to return in a brief space to his first love—the fire insurance business.

Major Whitner made an exhaustive study of this profession and had written several authoritative works on its various phases. So that he was well qualified for the large and successful career which he energetically prosecuted until ill health forced his recent retirement from active work.

The tale of all his years comprises an inspiration toward the highest type of Christian citizenship and useful, successful manhood.

Poulney Bigelow on the Panama Canal.

Poulney Bigelow, the well-known writer and traveler, has recently returned from the isthmus of Panama, where he professes to have made a thorough investigation of the progress and prospects of canal work. Things as Mr. Bigelow saw them on the isthmus are far from reassuring.

He declares that the present sanitary conditions are vile and says negro laborers are leaving the pest spot in boatloads. Labor, he says, is oppressed and dissatisfied. He charges that "Secretary Taft spent five days down here, and during that time attended three dances and a succession of social functions, but he had no time to look into the condition of the laboring man."

Mr. Bigelow makes a detailed arraignment of the management of the canal work, charging worse than incompetence. He declares that political jobbery is flourishing, and that the whole canal system "already gives ominous signs of rottenness."

He writes: "Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft no doubt mean well when they give us the assurance that political jobbery is foreign to their natures. At the same time, jobbery flourishes under their noses, and they appear to be incapable of stopping it."

The special message transmitted to congress by the president in submitting the Taft report on the progress of canal work to that body is meant to combat private criticism and testimony of the kind offered by Poulney Bigelow. President Roosevelt scores almost savagely those who have "knocked" the Panama canal, apparently from motives of opposition to the project, and in this he is quite right. It is evident enough that the canal project has powerful enemies, in and out of congress, and the suspicion is reasonable that these enemies have influential writers and lobbyists in their employ. It may also be true, as the president intimates in forceful language, that these private investigations and adverse criticisms are actuated by malice or because somebody has failed to get jobs or contracts.

Secretary Taft took the Bigelow criticism enough to heart to reply to it in a 5,000-word rejoinder, and what the secretary says about the work on the isthmus is calculated to greatly encourage and strengthen the faith of all friends of the Panama canal. But critics like that of Bigelow should stimulate congress to a thorough investigation of the canal work on the isthmus and a closer supervision of canal affairs in the future. There is a very prevalent opinion that this work is too exclusively in the hands of the executive department of the government. A strict accounting of every dollar expended should be made to the proper committees of congress.

The apparent disposition of congress to go to the bottom of the whole business will meet with public approval.

II
Don't you mind the fellers
That are sayin' earth rolls wrong;
If you listen, in the silence
There's the music of a song!

III
Don't you mind the fellers
That fuss, an' flare, an' fret—
This country's in the smile of God.
An' Life's worth livin' yet!

Nuggets from Georgia.

You can't always hit the weather right,
But it's a great joy to know you're in it—

You can't make good by living in the stars.
In fact, living's higher up there than elsewhere.

Sometimes we find Life too tiresome in the valleys; but when we come down from the hills, we find that the thunder up there has deafened us so, we can't hear the sweeter notes of Life.

It's one thing to talk about looking on Trouble raining at us six days in the week, and no rest on Sunday!

It's for You.

I
See that bending sky o' blue—
It's for you!

See that daisy in the dew?
It's for you!

See this world, so sweet an' bright
With the loveliness of light?
Say to Grief a long Goodnight—
It's for you!

II
Hear that bird's song thrillin' roun'—
It's for you!

Every inch of violet-roun'—
It's for you!

Never mind what comes along—

More Byron Biography.

The Byron-revival of the past few years has taken a sad turn—in the light of recent revelations. But the lover of his splendid verse will always love to think of him as saying:

"Should I doubt Oblivion bar
My name from out the temple where
The dead
Are honored 'mong the nations—let it be!"

And light the laurels on a loftier head!
And be the Spartan's epitaph on me:
'Sparta hath many a worthier son than he!"

Mr. Flammarion says "the race on Mars is superior to ours." But the Billville Banner doesn't believe it. The Banner says: "Did you ever see a race on earth between the high-sheer and a fellow who couldn't get up the money to meet the mortgage?"

The Beautiful Way.

Let's keep a-go'in'
The beautiful way;
In the dark dream that mornin'
Is makin' 'the May'.

You'll agree with Mr. Rockefeller, that "Money doesn't bestow happiness." The simple fact is, it only bestows the wherewithal to pay the rent, and settle the grocery bill, and to keep the ballist at arm's length, and—well, in the language of a Billville philosopher, "We have nothing against money as money in the Silmon Pure way."

The Heavenly Road.

"Does you ever stop ter think how high heaven is?"

"Don't worry me wid sich problems.
Ef I kin des git half-way, en keep fum gittin' dizzy, I'll be satisfied!"

If you can't be a genuine philosopher, you can keep still and listen when the philosophers tell you that misery is all right!

The Light Ahead.

Livin' for the brighter day—
Let the weather roll!
There'll be a streak o' sunshine
To light every soul!

Negro Declines Conscription.

Washington, January 15.—J. C. Napier, the negro lawyer and banker of Nashville, Tenn., who was recently offered the position of United States consul at Bakia, Brazil, called on the president and thanked him for the proposed appointment, but declined it.

GOSSIP AT THE CAPITOL.

An interesting point was made before the supreme court yesterday for the second time by Attorney General John C. Hart, in argument upon the case of Amanda Mann v. the state, a murder case against Newton county.

Judge Hart again asked the supreme court to review and reverse the decision in the Perkins and Greene cases, both murder cases, in which the court held that, where a plea of justification was made by the defendant, it was error for the trial court to charge that upon proof of homicide the law presumes malice. A similar request was made by Judge Hart in the Taibot case, from Paulding county, recently argued, and which has not yet been decided.

It was brought to the attention of the supreme court that it had rendered some thirty or forty decisions already which were directly contrary to those rendered in this point in the Perkins and Greene cases.

Judge Hart takes the position that it is the duty of the court to charge in the homicide cases that upon the proof of the homicide by the state the law presumes malice, and that the value or credibility of defendant's plea of justification is a simple question of fact to be passed upon by the jury.

It is a party has always been the pledge of future loyalty and an honest
intention to abide the result of the primary election. This has always been the position of the Constitution, and as a member of the state committee I have time and again spoken for that contention. I think there is absolutely no difference between you and me as regards that

The question is one of no little importance to the superior court judges all over the state.

Governor Terrell to Governor Jelks.

Governor Terrell, of Georgia, had an interesting talk over the long-distance telephone with Governor Jelks, of Alabama, shortly before noon yesterday.
Governor Terrell, in his office in the capitol in Atlanta, put in a call over the long-distance lines of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company for Governor Jelks in the capitol at Montgomery.

The call was executed with remarkable rapidity, and in thirty seconds Governor Terrell was extending the greetings of Georgia to the chief executive of Alabama. The conversation was of a personal nature, and both governors inquired about personal friends. They were both interested in being able to converse in such a satisfactory manner, though so many miles apart. They talked at the rate of about 150 words a minute.

In concluding their talk, both governors commented in a complimentary manner upon the excellence of the service.
The annihilation of time and distance,
and the convenience with which the feat was accomplished, was a matter of more than ordinary interest to them.

Negro Granted Respite.

Governor Terrell yesterday granted a respite of thirty days to Effie Johnson, a negro man, sentenced to be hanged in Terrell county for the murder of a white man. Johnson was to have been hanged on Wednesday, January 17, but upon the recommendation of the judge and solicitor who were engaged in the trial of the case, the governor has granted officers and other citizens, Governor Terrell has granted him a respite until Friday, January 19, for the purpose of giving the prison commission opportunity to fully investigate his case and ascertain whether a recommendation of commutation to life imprisonment would be proper.

New Insurance Company.

The Georgia Mutual Fire Insurance Company, with main offices in Atlanta, was granted a charter yesterday by Secretary of State Philip Cook. This company proposes to do a mutual and cooperative business and will have no capital stock. The incorporators are William M. Wilson and F. M. Gailbaird, of Atlanta; B. F. Sims, of Cedar town; W. B. Wilson, of Rock Hills S. C., and Stanley Wilson, of Spartanburg, S. C.
The secretary of state also granted an amendment to the charter of the Bank of Covington, in Newton county, permitting this bank to increase its capital stock from $25,000 to $37,500, under which it will issue 125 new shares of stock at a par value of $100.

Georgia Railroad Earnings.

Secretary George F. Montgomery, of the state railroad commission, is rapidly completing the commission's annual report for 1905, and this will present some interesting figures.

Yesterday Secretary Montgomery finished the totals of earnings and operating expenses for all the railroads in Georgia for 1905. These totals, which include the results from the 1,000
railroads in the state, are as follows:

1905—Gross earnings $33,220,041.13;
operating expenses, $23,294,189.09; net
earnings, $10,012,605.57.

1904—Gross earnings $30,742,015.50;
operating expenses, $21,774,925.37; net
earnings $9,026,644.44.

In calculating the net earnings the deficits which are shown by some of the railroad lines have to be taken into account, and these were as follows: 1905, $88,623.44; 1904, $59,853.87.

It will be seen from the foregoing that there has been an increase all along the line.

Pension Payments Tomorrow.

The annual payment of pensions to the confederate veterans and widows of Georgia will begin tomorrow. The first payments will be made to the veterans of the war of 1861-65, and there are about 1,080. The indigent soldiers of Fulton will be paid Wednesday.
The disabled soldiers on Thursday and the widows on Friday. Following this, Commissioner Linsey will pay the pensioners of other counties through the state as rapidly as it is possible for him to do so. He expects to complete the pension payments by March 1, and within the next six weeks will have to pay out a total of about $900,000.

Bible Found on Peachtree Battle Field.

Editor Constitution: I have a man in the bounds of my charge who was a soldier on the side of union in the time of the struggle between the north and south from 1861 to 1865, and while the engagement was on, and in a battle at Peachtree creek, he passed by a dead soldier of the confederate army and found a sword and a New Testament by his side. The Testament was bathed in his own blood, and the stains are on it yet.
The name in the Testament is as follows: "J. P. Greget, Company D, Third Mississippi Regiment—Elus Liber." It was found by George W. Smith at the battle of Peachtree creek, on the 20th of July, 1864.

He thinks the owner of the book was a lieutenant, and if any of our relatives can be found he (Smith) will send them the book. It would prove a source of comfort to them. Write me should you find them. Yours truly,

"IT IS UP TO HOKE SMITH," SAYS MACON TELEGRAPH

(Editorial from The Macon Telegraph.)
R. WATSON follows up his excoriation of Mr. Howell with his ex-other card in The Atlanta Journal. He says:

"Thomson, Ga., January 13.—I informed Smith of Howell letter (to Macgregor). Put the responsibility squarely on me. The letter related to public matters. When Howell flopped on the ground of the populists voting in the primary it was right to expose him.

"Hoke Smith offered me no induc-ments to support him.
"He never mentioned the senatorship to me in his life.
"His platform alone controlled my action.

"He made no pledges to me whatever.
Judge Hines urged me to run for the senate. I promptly declined. I am for John Temple Graves for the senate. I am slated for next year.

"THOS. E. WATSON."

The Howell letter to Macgregor was as follows:

"June 13, 1905.—Hon. C. E. Macgregor, Warrenton, Ga. Dear Charlie—In reference to the matter of which you write, I do not believe that anybody would seriously suggest the closing of the ballot box against any white man on account of past political affiliations. The principle of the party has always been the pledge of future loyalty and an honest
intention to abide the result of the primary election. This has always been the position of the Constitution, and as a member of the state committee I have time
and again spoken for that contention. I think there is absolutely no difference between you and me as regards that matter.

"I note with much pleasure your statement that you may be up to Atlanta later and when you come I want to go over the whole situation with you. In yourself tied up.

"With kind regards to all,
am. Sincerely your friend,
(Signed)
"CLARK HOWELL."

The plain implication of Mr. Watson's letter is that in this letter to Charlie Macgregor Mr. Howell declared in favor of a white primary in lieu of a white democratic primary, and that "Howell flopped," at Columbus "on the question." But not so, Howell's letter as seen above rings true in the subject of the primary, as he did at Columbus.

Mr. Watson has not extricated himself from the appearance of an attempt to

PENSION SYSTEM FOR THE POLICE

Councilman Draper Started the Ball Rolling Yesterday.

Measure Provides for the Support of Widows and Children of Those Killed on Duty, and for Retirement After 25 Years.

A system of pensioning for the police department is provided for in a resolution presented during the session of council yesterday afternoon by Councilman Draper, of the 5th ward, and referred to the board of police commissioners for action.

The measure provides that when policemen are killed in the discharge of their duties, the widow and children of the deceased be given one-half his pay. The widow can disqualify for receiving her portion only by death or remarriage, and the children disqualify by reaching the age of 18 years. As each one becomes disqualified from receiving the half pay, the others get the entire amount until the widow is either dead or remarried and the last child is 18 years of age.

The measure also provides that policemen who have twenty-five years of service to their credit be retired upon one-third pay.

In order to put this into effect, an amendment to the city charter will be required, and the measure provides for such an amendment.

FARMERS' UNION TO MEET HERE

County Agents Will Take
Up Important Matters
February 1.

The state executive committee of the Farmers' Union held meeting in Atlanta yesterday morning and decided to call a meeting of the state and local business agents at the hotel of representatives in the state capital February 1.

At this session the matters of handling guano, gathering statistics of the coming cotton crop and the signing of a minimum price will come up.

Those who were here yesterday were State President C. S. Best, of Thomaston; State Secretary R. J. Duckworth, of Thomaston; and the executive committee, composed of Chairman S. S. Barrett, of Pike county; Secretary S. J. Smith, of Forsyth county; J. D. Anderson, of Cherokee county; W. T. Hogue, of Barrow county; and H. Hoyle, of Upson county.

The Farmers' Union independent of the Southern Cotton Association, although it has for its purpose much the same work.

A GOOD SHOWING BY BANKS.

The Three Banks of Gingham Show Deposits of $50,000.

Covington, Ga., January 15.—(Special.)—The three state banks (this city have enjoyed a high degree of prosperity during the year just closed. Each has just declared a dividend as added larger amounts than usual to surplus accounts and undivided profits, giving the last six months there has been a remarkable increase in the deposits.

The Clark Banking Company, of which W. C. Clark is president and M. G. Turner, cashier, has a capital stock of $50,000, with average deposits amounting to $100,000, and is one of the oldest as well as most substantial financial institutions in this section of the state.

The increase in deposit of the Bank of Covington from $100,000, June 30, 1905, to $155,000, November 30, is indicative of the popularity of the Bank of Covington. The officers of the Bank of Covington are: Major John F. Henderson, president; Dr. J. Z. Anderson, vice president; and C. S. Simpson, cashier, all of whom have been re-elected for another term. The total stock of this bank has been increased from $25,000 to $50,000.

The Bank of Newton County, T. C. Swann, president; T. A. Gray, vice president; and A. B. Simms, cashier, all of whom have been re-elected for another term. The total stock of this bank has been increased from $25,000 to $50,000.

The combined deposits of the three banks will foot up nearly half million dollars, a large percentage of which belong to farmers.

NEW GARRISON HOSPITAL FOR ATLANTA'S ARMY POST

Erection of Regimental Hospital Recommended by General Barry Is Expected in the Near Future.
Poor Accommodations at Post.

THE citizens of Atlanta's garrison suburb at Fort McPherson are daily expecting news from Washington which will mean the erection of a new regimental hospital, costing from $35,000 to $50,000 or more. The present building is a battalion hospital with only two wards of twelve beds each. As a consequence one of the old sheds is being used in caring for certain classes of patients and convalescents.

The present building at the garrison is entirely inadequate to meet the needs of a regimental post such as Fort McPherson has become. When built only a single battalion was quartered there. Later a second battalion was added and from that time the building was too small to accommodate the soldiers who were ill. Then came the Spanish-American war and the exportation of troops to the Philippine Islands. When these troops returned from the islands many were ill with fevers and other complaints due to a hot climate and impure water. This was true when the second and third battalions of the sixteenth came to Atlanta. It was at that time that the temporary shed was pressed into service and in addition tents were put up to protect some of the soldiers who could not be accommodated either in the hospital or the shed.

It was at this time, too, that contracts were let for the building of company kitchens and dining halls. These will be completed and ready for occupation about April 1. All of this construction work is accounted to some $250,000. As all of the new buildings were of the finest to be found in the army, both officers and men are confident that the new regimental hospital will be in keeping with the other buildings and will add much to the beauty as well as to the requirements of the post.

It is understood that the building of this regimental hospital has been recommended by General Barry, while commander of the department of the Gulf and also the chief surgeon. Inspecting officers have also seen for themselves the great need for such a building and it is believed that word will be received from Washington this week as to the recommendation.

WITH PLUG HATS AND LONG COATS

Famous Cook County Democracy Will Again
Visit Atlanta.

The famous Cook County Democracy, Chicago's world famous political organization, will make another visit to Atlanta en masse on January 29.

A. L. Shiffman, representing the Cook County Democracy, was in Atlanta yesterday making arrangements for the visit of this organization at that time.

They will stop over here on their way back from Cuba, and will be in the city from 1 o'clock p. m. until 9:30 that night, when they will leave for Nashville.

On January 18, next Thursday, the democracy will leave Chicago 108 strong, and accompanied by a band of forty pieces, making a total of about 150 in the party. They will have four Pullman coaches, one tourist car for the band and a baggage car.

This is the fourteenth annual tour of the Cook County Democracy, and they are going to Cuba. They will pass through Atlanta at 1 o'clock on the morning of January 20, but will go right on to Nashville.

The democracy will use the Southern railway both going and returning, and several thousand miles of the trip will be made over that route.

After visiting Florida points and spending some days in Cuba, they will return, reaching Atlanta at 1 o'clock p. m. on January 29. They will remain in Atlanta until 9:30 that night and will be entertained here by their friends.

The Cook County Democracy visited Atlanta about four years ago on the occasion of their trip to Charleston, S. C., and the visit of that occasion will be generally recalled. It is well known as perhaps the foremost political organization of its kind in the country if not in the world.

JAMISON CASE IS WITHDRAWN

This May End the Famous
Litigation Over Macon's
Recorder's Court.

The writ of error in the case of Henry Jamison v. the state was withdrawn from the supreme court yesterday by Attorney Alex Ackerman, of Macon, who represented Jamison.

Mr. Ackerman stated that Jamison would pay the fine assessed against him by the recorder of Macon, a fine having been imposed as an alternative sentence, and he requested the supreme court to have the writ withdrawn.

The reason for the withdrawal of the writ of error in the Jamison case is that it is controlled by the recent decision of the supreme court in the case of Pearson v. Winbush, in which it was held that while a recorder's court may sentence a person to the state prison, it is a violation of the constitution to sentence a person to a county chain-gang along with misdemeanors and felony convicts for the mere violation of a city ordinance.

This, it is thought, practically ends the litigation on this subject, which was made famous by Judge Emory Spear's ruling granting a writ of habeas corpus in the Jamison case and holding that the recorder could not sentence to the county chain-gang without trial by jury. Judge Spear's ruling is practically sustained by the supreme court of the state, but municipalities having chain-gangs of their own are not affected by it.

BIG MONEY IN DAIRY FARMING

Some Statistics Regarding the Business Published by Government.

Washington, January 15.—In a report on "Records of Dairy Cows in the United States," issued by the department of agriculture, it is said that the records of progressive and up-to-date dairymen and farmers show that there is no business which has a greater range of profit than that of dairy farming. The record of 100 creameries is cited. It was shown that one of them made $230 for every dollar invested in feed for his cows, while another man made $1 and another lost 50 cents. All had the same soil and same market. The difference in their profits, he concludes, must be accounted for largely by the difference in the intelligence put in the business.

About a year or two ago the first battalion of the sixteenth, stationed at Fort Slocum, N. Y., joined their regiment, New barracks of the most improved kind and containing the very best of sanitary appointments and comforts for the enlisted men had been erected. New bachelor quarters and homes for married officers had also been built and Fort McPherson became a regimental garrison and one of the most important in the south or the entire country.

It was at this time, too, that contracts were let for the building of company kitchens and dining halls. These will be completed and ready for occupation about April 1. All of this construction work is accounted to some $250,000. As all of the new buildings were of the finest to be found in the army, both officers and men are confident that the new regimental hospital will be in keeping with the other buildings and will add much to the beauty as well as to the requirements of the post.

It is understood that the building of this regimental hospital has been recommended by General Barry, while commander of the department of the Gulf and also the chief surgeon. Inspecting officers have also seen for themselves the great need for such a building and it is believed that word will be received from Washington this week as to the recommendation.

Georgians Find Big Profits in Their Apple Orchards.

Fruit and produce merchants claim that the recent wet and rainy weather has been almost without precedent in Atlanta and that grocers, housewives and all those who do marketing have been among the losers. Shipments in such weather are smaller because the sales of this kind of produce fall off in wet weather. Fruit and vegetables deteriorate and spoil far more rapidly than usual.

Besides this, the telephone is blamed for hurting this kind of business in inclement weather. Green grocers insist that very many housewives prefer to use the telephone at such times and the greatest kind of a story on the part of the clerk does not appeal to them as does a well displayed lot of fruit on the stand.

Every day these produce merchants have been expecting better things in the way of clear weather and larger sales. But the rain and damp fog have appeared with much greater frequency than the expected and promised sunshine, and there are many who have become quite discouraged over Atlanta elements and their present sulky spell.

Oranges and grape fruit are exceptionally cheap at present. These are reported to be one-half of their former price than from one to three years ago at this season. The reason given is that every year finds more of the new trees in Florida bearing fruit and that the fruit growers are but just now recovering from the terrible freeze that killed so many thousand of trees seven years ago. While new trees were planted directly after the freeze and much grafting and other attempts at saving trees were made, the orchards are but now beginning to bear fruit in large quantities. In addition, far more fruit is being used every year by people who used to feel that they could not afford such luxuries. The increase in the number of grape fruit has been particularly large, but the number of new trees planted have been even greater, which makes this fruit retail at 10 and 15 cents apiece, prices much lower than usual.

While oranges and grape fruit are low, apples are high. This is reported to be due to the failure of the apple crop in New York, which is the great center and controlling territory for apples. But the loss in the north has been the south's gain. Virginia's crop has been very large and Georgians have also realized big profits from this fruit.

Will Reduce Cotton Acreage.

Jackson, Miss., January 15.—(Special.) Officers of the Mississippi Cotton Association convention are confident that this state will faithfully carry out the resolution providing for a reduction of 25 per cent in the cotton acreage, as compared with the year 1904.

During the last crop year Mississippi more nearly approximated the proposed reduction than any other cotton growing state.

GIVE HER A CHANCE.
Old Dame Nature Knows How.

"Old dame nature has a sure way of curing sick people by food. If the body and the person don't interfere with drugs. She prescribes such things as fresh air and sunshine, exercise and rest, and as her principal agencies."

Grape-Nuts is a natural food, prepared from wholesome grains, with no drugs nor chemical ingredients or processes, and is shipped from the factory in such predigested form that the weakest stomach will readily assimilate it.

An Ohio woman who suffered for twelve years from nervous prostration, night sweats, imperfect circulation, insomnia, etc., tells how Grape-Nuts food restored her to health and happiness in less than twelve weeks.

"I was so reduced in strength with untold suffering, without vitality or ambition, bed-ridden and unable to even walk myself, that I felt obliged to do doctor all the time, taking one prescription after another, but deriving no permanent benefit from any. Sometimes I would feel better for a little while, but soon the effects of the medicine would pass away and I would lapse back to my former condition."

"Last May at my mother's solicitation I concluded to quit medicines and try Grape-Nuts food. I took a small box, a miracle at once, but slowly and surely, day by day, it built me up and strengthened me. I soon began to sit up, then to walk a little, then to get out to see my friends, gaining meanwhile in sleep. At last, by the end of June I was home to leave home for a visit (taking in Grape-Nuts with me, as usual), returning after a few weeks, completely restored, with a healthy interest in my domestic duties, and, thank heaven, the strength to perform them!"

"That is so, and that I am stronger in mind and also quicker and more vigorous intellectually, is due to the use of Grape-Nuts food. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. See Grape-Nuts. There's a reason. Read the little book, 'The Road to Wellville' in pkgs."

BOYKIN WRIGHT READS DECISION

Augusta and Richmond
County Claim Big Taxes
From Georgia Road.

Hon. Boykin Wright, of Augusta, was in the city yesterday on business connected with the recent decisions of the supreme court in the Georgia railroad and Central of Georgia tax cases.

Mr. Wright is looking particularly after the interests of Richmond county and of Augusta, who have large claims for taxes against the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company based on these decisions. He spent the morning at the capitol reading the supreme court's decision in the Georgia railroad case, in which he was especially interested, and to whose earnest efforts as attorney general and afterwards as attorney for the state, the success of the state in these cases was largely due.

It has not yet been decided just what the next step in this famous litigation will be. It is firmly believed that the railroads will again appeal to the United States supreme court upon the ground that they were denied the due process of law. That, of course, would further delay the collection of taxes. It is said that Joseph B. Cumming, of Augusta, has been quoted as saying that the litigation had just begun.

The executions in the Georgia railroad case in favor of Richmond county and the city of Augusta have already been issued by Comptroller General Wright, and Mr. Boykin Wright spent some time in talking over the matter with him.

The total amount of taxes due the city of Augusta on the Georgia road's $1,500,000 of the capital stock of the Western Railway of Alabama for the eleven years covered by the supreme court's decision, including interest, is about $291,000, while the amount said to be due Richmond county, including the school tax, is close to $150,000. These enormous tax bills are, no doubt, somewhat staggering to the railroad companies involved, and there is no wonder that they are anxious to fight the case to the last ditch. There is a possibility, therefore, that the matter may be kept in the courts for some time to come.

COURT GREET NEW JUSTICE

Case Involving Baggage Monopoly Will Be Argued
This Week.

The state supreme court sat for argument yesterday for the first time since the holidays. The day was devoted to criminal business, which will be followed as soon as that is completed by cases brought up on last fall's exceptions.

Among the latter to be argued within the next day or two is the case of the Atlanta Baggage and Cab Company v. the Atlanta Terminal Company and the Atlanta Baggage and Cab Company, which involves the effort of the new baggage company to break up the monopoly which the Atlanta Baggage and Cab Company enjoys, particularly at the new terminal, where it afforded every facility to the exclusion of other companies. The result of this case in the supreme court will be awaited with no little interest. Hoke Smith is one of the stockholders of the company enjoying the monopoly, and was for a long time not sitting.

The chief feature of interest yesterday was the appearance upon the supreme bench for the first time of Justice Samuel C. Atkinson, of Brunswick, appointed a short time ago by Governor Terrell to succeed Justice John S. Canfield. Justice Canfield's resignation became effective today and Justice Atkinson went on the bench for the first time. He was assigned to the second division, over which Associate Justice A. J. Cobb, presiding justice, presides when the entire court is not sitting.

At the opening of the court a committee was appointed from the bar to prepare a suitable memorial to the late Maj. John W. Park, of Reinesboro, who was for many years a member of the Georgia bar. This memorial will be presented to the court when the Coweta circuit is called. Major Park was a brother of State Treasurer Robert E. Park.

Supreme Court of Georgia.

Ordered, that Mr. Justice Atkinson be assigned to the second division of this court.

Mr. Julius F. Lewis was appointed and qualified as a stenographer of this court, instead of Mr. R. L. D. McAllister, resigned.

On motion, the following committee was appointed to prepare a memorial of the life and character of the late Major John W. Park, and to present the same when the Coweta circuit is before the court at this term: H. W. Hill, chairman; R. F. McLaughlin, W. S. Howell, A. H. Freeman, W. A. Post, H. A. Hall, F. M. Conley, S. R. Harris, E. B. Taylor, V. State, from Wayne.

On motion, the following committee was appointed to prepare a memorial of the life and character of the late Major John W. Park, and to present the same when the Coweta circuit is before the court at this term: H. W. Hill, chairman; R. F. McLaughlin, W. S. Howell, A. H. Freeman, W. A. Post, H. A. Hall, F. M. Conley, S. ## SCHOOL CHECKS SOON TO GO OUT

State Treasurer To Pay Out
$581,585 This Week.

Still There Is More of the 1905
School Fund To Follow—Payments a Week Earlier Than Usual—Another Payment
in February.

State Treasurer R. E. Park began the preparation yesterday of the school fund checks, disbursing the remainder of a large part of the balance of the school fund for 1905. This immediate payment will amount to $581,585.48, in addition to which there will be about $100,000 more paid out within the next week or ten days.

Of the foregoing amount $444,596.58 will go to the county systems and $136,988.90 to the city and local systems.

These checks will be completed by tomorrow and by Friday the last of them will have been mailed to the proper school officials of the various counties and schools districts.

Considerably more than this amount would have been sent out at the present time but for the fact that nine counties have failed to furnish their regular reports to the state school commission, and this must be done as a precedent to receiving the money. In addition to this a large number of counties have failed to draw all of the school money that is coming to them. Many counties prefer to get something ahead where they can, and this enables them to pay their teachers promptly without the necessity of waiting for the school money to be collected by the state.

Considerable Still on Hand.

For the foregoing reasons there will be something like $200,000 of the 1905 school fund left on hand after the present payment has been made, and about $100,000 of this will be paid out within the next few days, the other remaining for a while as the accumulations of those counties which have money ahead.

The nine counties which failed to send in their reports and to which, on account, no payments can be made at the present time, are Chatham, Coffee, Floyd, Habersham, Meriwether, Mitchell, Rabun, Troup and Wilkes.

On account of the fact that the pension payments begin tomorrow and these school payments can be made at the present time, it will be several weeks, perhaps, before any more school money checks can be sent out.

What Fulton Will Get.

Fulton county will receive from the payment to be made this week a total of $35,439.94, divided as follows: Atlanta, $28,819.90; East Point, $560.28; Hapeville, $206.94; Oakland City, $304.42; the rest of Fulton county, $8,548.40.

Richmond county's share will be $20,565.24.

Muscogee county will get $4,806.01 and Columbus $6,093.96.

Chatham county will receive $22,175.14. Bibb county's share will be $17,934.32.

The school payments this year have been pushed forward considerably and are being made about a week or ten days earlier than heretofore.

The first payment on the 1906 school fund, which will amount to about 16.2 per cent of the whole fund will be made about February 20.

W. V. Lanier, of Millen, has been elected county school commissioner of Jenkins county, one of the new counties recently created by the legislature. He has been for years principal of the Millen schools and is a well known school man. Hon. S. W. Palmer has been elected president of the board of education of Jenkins county.

ATLANTA MAN IS PROMOTED.

Transportation Clerk Curran Is Appointed Chief Clerk of the Department of the Lakes.

Transportation Clerk Curran, of the Department of the Gulf, has received a promotion to that of chief transportation clerk, with headquarters in the Department of the Lakes, and will leave this week to enter upon his new duties in Chicago. Mr. Curran has made many friends since his connection with the department, and the location of his headquarters in Atlanta.

His promotion is due entirely to his efficiency, and while the new position carries with it added responsibilities, the added compensations more than makes amends in this particular. Mr. Curran is a native Atlantan, and a member of one of the most prominent families in Georgia. While receiving the many congratulations of his friends, his only regret is that the promotion calls him away from Atlanta.

BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY MARKS 77TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

TIFTON, GA., January 15.—(Special.) The children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of Mrs. T. H. Willingham celebrated the seventy-seventh anniversary of her birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Tift, last week.

Each of her birth anniversaries since the seventieth has been celebrated at the home of Mrs. Tift, and each has been the occasion of a family reunion and a feast. The last one was the most delightful of the series.

The Tift home was artistically as well as most appropriately decorated with palms, evergreens and smilax, with pink and white carnations and japaonics, and brilliantly illuminated.

In the east window a spacious white throne had been erected, and to this Mrs. Willingham was conducted by her oldest son in law, Dr. E. H. Bacon. On her right was her oldest sister, Mrs. W. J. Willingham, Sr., and her oldest daughter, Mrs. E. H. Bacon. On the left was her youngest daughter, Mrs. I. W. Myers; her youngest son, W. J. Willingham, Jr.; while in front were grouped the little great grandchildren and around them the other members of the family.

Dr. D. L. Pickard took a beautifully wrought gold crown and in feeling words told of the crowns of Europe, that descended from generation to generation by right of heritage, often tainted with blood, but here was a crown that was won by noble, Christian motherhood. It was then handed to W. J. Willingham, selected because the youngest son, who placed it upon the aged brow and crowned her "queen of motherhood."

Dr. E. H. Bacon paid a glowing tribute to the mother, and all joined in singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." Mrs. Willingham, Sr., led in prayer. Mrs. Colvard and Mrs. Morrow sang a duet, and Miss Nella Bacon and Miss Bessie Morrow rendered some beautiful recitations, while Mr. Lawrence gave some exquisite violin selections.

Several toasts were proposed to the mother by various members of the family, among them a most touching one by Dr. W. W. Bacon.

There were present thirty-eight members of the family, a few having been detained by sickness. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Willingham, Sr., of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Bacon, of Eastman, and daughter, Miss Nella; Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Bacon, of Albany, and daughter, Miss Lula; Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Tift and sons, Henry, Willingham and Amos; Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Pickard, of Lynchburg, Va., and daughters, Misses Florrie and Bessie; Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence and little daughter, Cecelia Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Myers and little daughter, Margaret; Mr. W. J. Willingham, Jr., of New York; Mrs. A. R. Colcord and daughters, Marie and Sara, of Atlanta; Mrs. Ed Sheffield and daughter, Sara, of Americus; Miss Mildred Willingham, of Eastman; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morrow and daughter, Bessie, of Tifton; and Mr. Ben Daniel, of Atlanta.

Besides the members of the family present were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pickard and daughter, Nella; Mrs. Henry Miller and little Miss Ella Belle McHenry; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown, Mrs. Charles Griffin and son, Lawton, of Eastman, came, but were prevented from being present on account of illness.

Miss Steele's Dinner Dance.

A MOST enjoyable occasion was the dinner dance, at which Miss Alice Steele entertained last night, the bright party including thirty guests.

At 8 o'clock, the guests assembled and were seated in parties of six at circular tables in the dining room, library and den, beyond.

Each table had as its centerpiece a cut glass candelabra holding waxen tapers with their lights shining through pink shades, while around it were cut glass vases holding pink roses and narcissuses. The bonbons and ices were in pink and the daintily painted place cards.

After dinner, the guests repaired to the entrance hall, converted into a parlor, with its tete-a-tete seats and divans, and here coffee was served.

The cotillon was danced in the two drawing rooms, affording ample space for the unique and graceful figures, and being a picturesque environment with its decorations of palms and ferns for the lovely young women in their airy fairy ball gowns.

Miss Steele was lovely in a dancing gown of white meshed satin, embroidered in gold sequins, and trimmed in lace.

Miss Fannie Plant, of Macon, the charming young guest of honor, wore white lace, the corsage embroidered in silver.

Miss Elizabeth Adair wore a ball gown of white chiffon with a tulle skirt.

Miss Catherine Gholston wore pale pink tulle, sparkling with opal tinted sequins.

Miss Susie May Pope wore white lace embroidered in gold.

Miss Lightner wore pale blue silk, with trimmings of white and lace.

Theater Goes.

Be sure you see Creston Clarke in "Monsieur Beaucaire." He is a splendid actor. It is a great play. Like "Tribby," "Monsieur Beaucaire" is even a better play than story.

"In these days of rubbish, such a play is a rare delight," says the Richmond News-Leader. "Everywhere crowded, delighted houses declare, 'Here is a masterful actor.'"

The coming of this attraction can properly be styled THE dramatic event of the season.

THEATERS.

The Bijou.

"The Show Girl," with Miss Hilda Thomas as Maggie Webbington, the dramatic star, kept 'em laughing at the Bijou last evening every moment that the curtain was up. It is a play to predict a week of crowded houses at the popular play house.

Some interesting specialties are introduced during the performance, and among the best of them is the dancing of the the Mason sisters. Miss Thomas is splendid as Maggie, and the audience was in an uproar of laughter every time she came before the footlights. Miss Esther Wallace as Cecile Gay is another member of the company who deserves mention. Her singing was a feature. Lou Hall as Johnny Jones, the property man, was very good, indeed.

"The Show Girl" has lots of music and girls and costumes and laughs in it, and is well worth seeing. The company will be here for the entire week, with the usual matinees.

The Grand.

One of the popular New York successes to be presented in this city during the coming season, perhaps the most notable is that of "The Duke of Killcrankie," in which Miss Rose Coghlin will appear at the Grand this afternoon.

This delightful comedy not only enjoys the distinction of having been the most pronounced hit of last season's offerings in New York, but likewise enjoyed a phenomenal successful run of nearly two years at the Criterion and Wyndham theater in London.

"Checkers," the success of New York's last two seasons, will be presented at the Grand Wednesday and Thursday nights and matinee Thursday. Both critically and financially this bid for this city's favor seems to have proved one of the most noted of the present theatrical season. The play when seen here will be practically by the original company save that the phenomenal young actor, Hans Roberts, will be seen in the title role.

With his last year's triumphant production of "Beaucaire," the romantic comedy, "Beaucaire" greatly produced, Creston Clarke will make his reappearance at the Grand Friday and Saturday, and it is quite certain that he will meet with the hearty reception befitting his own renown and the play's worth. Mr. Clarke's personality and art have long made his visits events to be pleasantly anticipated. Far more than customary interest attaches to his coming when he does it by aid of such a charming vehicle as "Beaucaire."

MOULTRIE, GA.

Mrs. P. B. Allen was the moosest last week at a beautiful reception. The colors were green and white, and were carried by the players. The hall was draped in ivy, and punch was served from a punch bowl beautifully arranged in the center. The refreshments were a salad course and ices. Mrs. Allen was assisted in entertaining by Miss Jennie Allen.

Mrs. F. J. Byrns entertained the daughters of the Confederacy very delightfully Friday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served.

Misses Mattie Cole Morton and Sara Everett, of Lumpkin, have returned home, after a visit to Mrs. W. B. Matthews.

Miss Alma Owens left this week for Adel, where she will teach a class in music.

Miss Beulah Pidcock is being pleasantly entertained as the guest of Miss Walters in Atlanta.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

Columbus Ga., January 15.—(Special.) The annual meeting of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association tonight was quite a notable occasion. An interesting feature was a reception to George W. Stratman, the new general secretary of the association, and Mrs. Stratman.

MASONIC TEMPLE

CONTRACT MADE

Building Committee Accepted

Bid Last Night

Name Will Not Be Made Public Until Mass Meeting Is Held Within Next Month—Ways and Means Committee Appointed.

Bids for the Masonic Temple, which is to be erected in Atlanta, were opened last night by the committee in charge of the construction. Although it is stated that the award of the contract was made none of the board of directors would state to whom the work was delegated.

The Masonic Temple will be perhaps the tallest four-story building in America. Its height will be only a few feet less than that of the Prudential building.

Plans were drawn by Morton & Dillon, architects. The temple will be erected at the corner of Peachtree and Cain streets on a lot which has already been purchased by the Masonic Temple Company, and will cost about $85,000.

The building committee consists of J. C. Greenfield, John R. Wilkinson, Edward S. McCandless, Forrest Adair and James L. Mayson.

At last night's meeting, the following committee on ways and means was appointed: Forrest Adair, Edward S. McCandless and J. K. Orr. This committee will meet some time today and get actively to work formulating plans for raising money for the project.

Within the next thirty days, a mass meeting of the Atlanta Masons will be held, probably at the Grand opera house, at which time, it is stated, the announcement as to the award of the contract will be made and the enterprise will be started off with enthusiasm.

A recent meeting of the board of directors of the Congregation Beth Israel enlisted the aid of the ladies to assist in the erection of the new temple on Washington street, corner of Clarke.

The following ladies met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Saul, 201 South Pryor street, and formed an auxiliary: Mrs. Adolf Steiner, Mrs. Philip Elson, Mrs. Joseph Saul, Mrs. Benjamin Feld, Mrs. M. Fordan, Mrs. L. C. Rouglin, Mrs. H. Welsky, Mrs. G. Conansky, Mrs. I. Smullyan, Mrs. B. Wildauer, Mrs. F. Rabinowitz, Mrs. J. Gottlieb, Mrs. L. Eplan, Mrs. D. Goldin, Mrs. J. W. Hirschfeld and Mrs. L. Gordon.

A bazaar will be held beginning the first Monday in May, and these ladies will have charge of the booths and aid in securing donations.

The ladies also agreed to take charge of the special work to provide the new temple with art glass windows, carpets and chandeliers.

An additional structure will be erected on Clarke street, in the rear of the temple, for educational purposes, containing Hebrew schools, lecture hall, gymnasium and night classes, similar to the Hebrew educational alliance of New York.

The officers of the auxiliary are as follows: Mrs. A. Steiner, president; Mrs. J. Saul, vice president; Mrs. B. Feld, treasurer; Mrs. M. Fordan, secretary. Musical and other entertainments will be given from time to time.

WANT AND NEED.

There's a big difference between what a baby wants and what he needs. Deny him the one, give him the other. Most babies need Scott's Emulsion—it's the right thing for a baby. It contains a lot of strength-building qualities that their food may not contain. After a while they get to want it. Why? Because it makes them comfortable. Those dimples and round cheeks mean health and ease. Scott's Emulsion makes children easy; keeps them so, too.

BIDS ARE WANTED FOR NEW VIADUCT

Boulevard Underpass Bids Are Also Provided For.

Busy Session Was Held Yesterday Afternoon and Much Was Accomplished—Very Few Objections Were Delivered During Session.

Resolutions providing for advertisements for bids for the Washington street viaduct and the Boulevard underpass were introduced and adopted during the meeting of the general council yesterday afternoon.

Alderman Holland, chairman of the bridge committee, had upon the desk of City Clerk Campbell a resolution providing that bids for the two improvements be advertised for, the cost of notices to be not more than $50. Councilman Martin had a resolution providing only for the bids for the Washington street viaduct. Councilman Martin withdrew his measure, and the Holland resolution was adopted.

This means that Captain R. M. Clayton, chief engineer of the city, will immediately commence his report of the work on both the Washington street viaduct and the Boulevard underpass.

Councilman Roberts introduced a resolution, which was adopted, providing that a committee of three be appointed to join a committee from the board of health in asking the board of county commissioners to request that the roads leading to the dumping grounds of the city be worked out and repaired.

Mayor Pro Tem. Harwell appointed on the committee Councilman Roberts, Alderman Quillian and Councilman Hancock.

First Ward Fire House.

From Mayor Pro Tem. Harwell, Councilman Terrell and Councilman Curtis came a resolution providing that a lot be purchased for a fire engine house in the first ward. The measure was referred to the board of fire masters, of which Alderman Sims is chairman.

A resolution by Councilman Wikle in relation to the fire chert from the $32,000 was referred to a committee which will report next Thursday afternoon.

From the sewer committee came a resolution authorizing a favor to the city of the city to advertise for bids for material with which to construct sewers this year. The resolution was adopted. Bids are to be opened February 5.

Councilman Roberts, by request, introduced an ordinance authorizing the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company to lay underground conduits upon the usual conditions on Sixth street and Tenth street from Peachtree street to Piedmont avenue. The measure was referred to the committee on telephones, of which Alderman Peters is chairman.

No Liquors on Sundays.

Alderman Sims, by request, presented a petition prohibiting the sale of spirituous and malt liquors at any place from midnight on Saturday night until midnight on Sunday night. Councilman Wikle directed attention to the fact that the ordinance dealt with fire water. It was, therefore, referred to the committee on fires, of which Councilman Ellis is chairman.

A sewer on Lovejoy street, from Pine street to Marietta street, is provided for in an ordinance presented by Councilman Glass, which was referred to the committee on sewers, of which Councilman Chosewood is chairman.

Because council deferred action upon the January apportionment sheet until Thursday afternoon, and because the sewer committee did not report on the Orme street sewer, the session of yesterday afternoon was much shorter than was expected.

The meeting began with prayer by Rev. Charles L. Pattillo, pastor of West Side Methodist church.

Various citizens, headed by Marvin Underwood, their attorney, petitioned for the revocation of the license of C. Baldwin, who operates a saloon at 542 Marietta street. The principal point made was that the saloon license had been advertised in The Fulton County Daily Reporter, and, therefore, was not seen by the parties most interested. On motion of Councilman Ellis, the matter was re-referred to the police committee, of which Councilman Oldknow is chairman.

No Park Interference.

The Oldknow ordinance, which regulates the number and salaries of employees in the department of parks, came from the ordinance committee. Councilman Pomeroy chairman, with a favorable minority report, signed by Councilman Oldknow, and an adverse majority report, signed by all other members of the committee.

Councilman Oldknow made a forceful speech, but members of council thought his measure a reflection upon members of the park board, and, therefore, voted it down.

The ordinance of Mayor Pro Tem. Harwell, which prevents bulldozers from occupying the sidewalks, had been adverse by the ordinance committee. At the request of Mayor Pro Tem. Harwell, the measure was re-referred to the committee.

The ordinance of Councilman Pattillo, to prevent the sale of fish from stands on sidewalks, had been adverse by the committee with a favorable report, and was adopted.

with the Roberts family, but had squared accounts with them in advance.

Dr. Jennings conducted a thriving business in an upstairs room over Morris drug store on Cherry street. Many people who measured declines by what the palmist said had advertised him and his deserted office presented a striking scene when the hour for business arrived without the principal character in this performance in his place.

That a swindle on a large scale was perpetrated is now said to be a settled fact and hundreds of dollars' worth of valuables paid in advance for information and jewelry stored in his office to await the results of the trickster's magic.

Officers have been placed on his track and an effort will be made to bring Dr. Jennings back to answer the complaints made by his callers. His office negro dodged the officers also when he learned that they were coming to investigate and the trio are evidently directing their travel toward another city.

AT THE CENTRAL GOSPEL UNION.

10 Central avenue, noonday meeting will be held all this week, and on Tuesday and Saturday nights regular services will be conducted. The meeting held last night was well attended, and it is believed much good will be accomplished in the work.

It's this useless "head" that makes a cigar cost you 5 cents. It takes considerable cleverness and time to form the "head" on a cigar. And that's why one cigar with the head on it costs you three times as much as an Old Virginia Cheroot.

OLD VIRGINIA CHEROOTS

Package of 3 for 5 cents

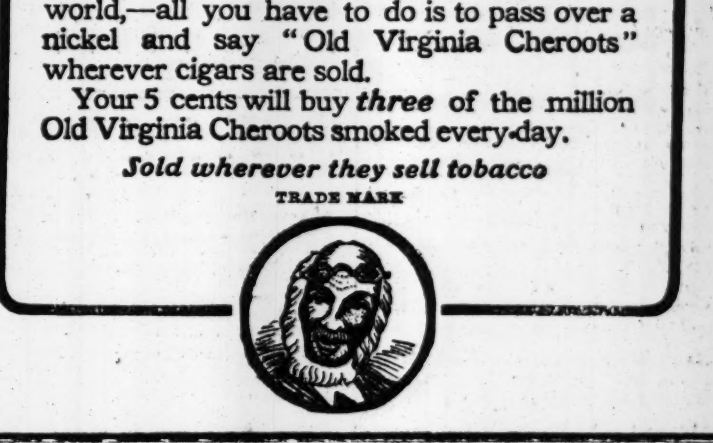

(A cheroot is a cigar made without the head)

If you want a cigar that's all cigar—no useless "head" to pay for and then clip off and throw away—made from five different evenly blended grades of fine domestic tobacco, and made in the cleanest cigar-factory in the world,—all you have to do is to pass over a nickel and say "Old Virginia Cheroots" wherever cigars are sold.

Your 5 cents will buy three of the million Old Virginia Cheroots smoked every-day.

Sold wherever they sell tobacco

DEMAND BETTER FOR SPOT COTTON

Holders of Actual Stuff Very Firm in Their Views.

Resulted in a Sharp Advance Early, Part of Which Was Later Lost, the Close Being Steady 5 to 15 Points Higher.

New York, January 15.—The cotton market was moderately active, and showed some irregularity. The tone, however, was steady in the main, and the market closed at a net advance of 5 to 15 points. Sales were reported of 300,000 bales. The opening was firm at an advance of 5 to 15 points, and shortly afterward all the active months were selling about 15 to 16 points higher on bull support, and covering as a result of much higher Liverpool cables and evidence of a better general demand through wire and commission houses, which was attributed by some to the influence of the resolutions passed by the New Orleans convention favoring a further reduction in acreage and holding the balance of the present crop for the New Orleans market, as though the advance to 11.67 for March was attracting a good deal of realizing, this was not the case, as the advance of about 35 points from the low level of last week and toward midday the market turned irregular, and in the early afternoon it weakened under realizing and some selling by local bears on rumors of freer spot offerings, and a decline of a point or two under the initial figures, rallied on a renewal of cover, and later disparted from the south claiming a better spot demand and very firm holders. The close was steady in tone and with 3 or 4 points of the top on active months. Southern spot markets, according to official reports, were unchanged to 40 higher.

New Orleans Cotton Market.
New Orleans, January 15.—Spot cotton in good demand, with offerings more liberal. Sales 4,250 bales, including 1,100 to arrive and 100 f.o.b. delivered on contracts 700. Quotations up 1-16; middling 11 1/8.
Futures. Influenced by better Liverpool opened 10 to 11 points up. Cables reported that Alexandria and the continent are buying in Liverpool, and the impression prevails here that the Alexandria buying is not without a point of the top. Net gains were 8 points on January, and 10 points on all other months.

The Dry Goods Market.
New York, January 15.—Slightly increased activity was noted in the dry goods market today. Larger number of buyers were present, and manifested much interest, particularly in spot goods. The advance of 1/2 cent in staple products was the feature of the day.

The Liverpool Cotton Market.
Liverpool, January 15, 12:15 p. m.—Cotton, spot, demand fair, with prices firm; middling uplands 6.20; sales 8,000 bales; American 8,000; speculation 1,000; export 500; receipts 6,100; all American Futures opened firm.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.
New York, January 15.—COTTON—A sharp advance in Liverpool, due largely according to our cables, to three buying by Egyptian operators on receipt of bull-bull cables from New York. The advance in the New Orleans market was based on the resolutions of the New Orleans convention to hold the balance of the crop for 160. After the opening the market relaxed into dullness with a slight reaction from the best prices. While the Egyptian operators have bought, they appear to have been supplied by a Wall Street house, who was buying last week. The market as a whole is looking for some new factor upon which to change it from the present dull condition. It is shown that there is little disposition to trade without the stimulus of sharp buying by the mills or a desire to liquidate by holders. Spinners show no anxiety over the outlook, and buy only on declines.

Ware & Leland.
New York, January 15.—COTTON—There was quite an active opening on cotton at the beginning of the week, due to a sharp advance in Liverpool, which was increased to 1-4 during the early hours here, and carrying weight in the foreign market, prices here advanced 15 points. On the rise, cotton seemed to be for sale and the market became dull, in no respect was there any radical change

UPWARD TENDENCY WAS CONTINUED

"Cats and Dogs" Made a Conspicuous Showing.

Constant Profit Taking Made Some Impression on Prices Late in the Day, but the Closing Was Fairly Steady at Slight Rallies.

New York, January 15.—The upward tendency of prices was continued in today's stock trading, but the movement diffused into some outlying quarters of the market remote from the usual course of activity. There was a conspicuous showing of a class of securities known in brokers' parlance as "cats and dogs." The reaching of a speculative movement into the depths of the stagnant portion of the money market was a period of great speculation. The turning of the demand today in the stocks of the lower grade was much more conspicuous in the industrial and miscellaneous stocks than in the low grade railroad stocks. The sustaining forces in the latter department were still for the most part amongst the high-class securities. The northwestern grangers and Pacific were notable examples, the MHI group, Chicago and North-western and the subsidiary stocks of St. Paul, all rising notably. There was a continuance of the very extensive profit taking which characterized last week's market. The sluggishness of the market may have been due in part to the assembling of the mine workers' convention. Foreign markets took a tranquil view of the Moroccan conference upon the evening of the 14th. Discounts hardened a trifle. London and Berlin, and sterling exchange fell back a fraction in Paris. Time loans for 300 days were made as low as 5 per cent. The strength of United States Steel preferred was an offset to the predominance of some of the low grade industrial. The constant profit taking made more impression on prices late in the day than at any other time. The closing was fairly steady, but at only slight rallies from the afternoon reaction.
